My Dear Rufy.

How do!

Firstly I will give you permission to throw away any letters that come to you on business stationery because I know it must be rather embarrassing for you when your friends see that your correspondents can't afford the proper paper for particular purposes. Please pardon Percy, for perhaps people don't always know that he is kind of busy and can only steal a minute now and again from his boss.

Last night I was trying to realize what it meant to you to go to the Tabernacle - and truly I couldn't. Please hurry up and tell me all about it, because how wonderful I want to see if it was any better than we had.

Ernestine, Sophie, Ray, & Zike gave a musical last evening, at the Congregational church, and if I may pass judgement - It was great. Ernestine and Sophie sang a duet, Ray and Zike each sang a solo and the quartette sang three anthems - some class I'm telling you. I went alone - think of it - and just inside the door sat Edith and Wanda Esden. - well they saved my life.

My! what a wonderful time you must be having. Are you very "country"? I'll bet you are just burning it up - aren't you? Be careful - get to bed early and don't "spend your substance in riotous living."

those last are just suggestions, this is a command. - Have a good time.

School is great. I have started studying in earnest now, and in addition to the regular course I am enrolled among the rushers - hours 3.30 A.M. to 5 A.M. Such sleepiness I have never known before, but it will be all over Wednesday when the case rush decides the supremacy of the Fresh & Soph classes. I can cover all the money you can send on the Sophs, so answer quickly with enclosed stamps..

A girl on a vacation doesn't care to spend a half hour on drives, so I'll call off my pen, and bid you a fond and affectionate goodnight. Tom.
