My Dear Rufus.

Ruth Miller said that you would probably be in Fallon till Tuesday; so I'll take a chance on a scrawl.

I was delighted today when I heard that your mother had passed thru' the second operation successfully, and that there was a change for the better.

You certainly have my sincerest sympathy and my prayers at this time. It truly is a hardship on you with so much sickness at home, and so many worries at the office. But buck up girl - you're the best one I ever knew to shoulder burdens.

Thanks for the note. It was mighty nice of you to remember me. But say you are the lucky kid with all the raises you are getting. Even heartless corporations can find an opportunity to display some sense of appreciativeness. Cherlin looks pretty good now doesn't it? I'll bet you all of a five pound box of chocolates that Cornell beats Cherlin the first

~~you~~ year you are there. Done? Thanks!

I hope every thing will be fine and sandy by the time you get this letter, and ~~that~~ you will be able to come home with a light heart.

Very sincerely yours.
Lou.
