

T. P. Walcott.
Reno, Nev.

Ruth Pyle,

Reno,

Nevada.

629 Lake St.

June 18, 1912.

My Dear Rufus.

Just four little words and in three, but mind you not a word to a soul. These are they — "I'll be back Monday"
I will not start in at the office
till ~~Monday~~ ^{how} Tuesday, however.
You know as things are now I have no home except the training quarters and I have to fix it up.
Have the Monday off. I'm coming to see you Monday night for a little while. A little while I say, for I have the firm intention to sleep a long and happy sleep. Too much store down here. Tuesday may we inventoried all night. Last night I visited Meda Menardi and the Jamisons. ~~Today~~ Tonight I promised I'd take Sis to the show. Yesterday our successor took possession and believe me it's some relief altho' I must still rise at 5-0' clock. The new fellow needs a great deal of coaching.

But enough - Until Monday "So long"

Dom.