my darling.

Say those two Bros. are sure good to you and Tillie. There's not a day passes but they take you somewhere. Did Tillie fall in love with one of 'em yet? That should be your summers work - to see her happily settled so that she need have no hopes on your property. If it were best to tell her the affair would be settled - but it's more fun this way isn't it?

mother writes that she will be glad when I get home so that I can play some of the music you sent. Wonders what she will say when she hears of Disco! This game I know. Anyhow I have $150 that represents a month and a half saving, and I don't figure on spending more'n 50 of it on the pleasure joint. That's fair enough isn't it?

Can't write much tonight 'cause I'm sleepy. Went to a stag party or Dutch lunch or beer bust as you will last night hence the sleepy. I'm wishing hard for you tho', and I'm just gloating over all the bugs I've saved. Can you stand them all Sweetheart? So long for a time. your lover ☺☺☺ Jimmy ☺☺☺
