Dearest Ruth:

We're waiting for a car to come
and pass us - just time for a line.

I saw you and Sal go up Va. St.
last night and you sure looked good to me.
You sat up so nice and straight. I'm sure you won't get sick. I was awful jealous too - the worst I ever felt in my life.

Those were sure some three days - I'll tell you about them Thurs. night. all I stood from everybody was enough to break a strong man - it broke me. So much for that!

Just had a picnic lunch at Hat
Springs. It was some good too - Duck - Chicken - everything and home-made. This is to be some trip.

See you Thurs night and oh you.
Your lover
Sam
