Miss Ruth Ann Pyle,
629 Lake St.,
Reno,
Nevada.

ELKO, NEVADA

March 10, 1915

Dearest Rufelus;

For a while I was sorry I promised to write to you, because it looked like I never could, but the strain became too great. never you fear if you don't hear from me for three or four days some time. That's the limit and it means a letter.

No chance for me to tell you all that has happened —

This is as far as

ELKO, NEVADA

I got when the phone rang. Dinner at the McBrides in twenty minutes and I must get into my working clothes.

I'm sorry Rufus dear, and 'cause I'm so sorry there's a awful big bug and a "week long" kiss, not a weak long kiss.
Soo' by. sweetheart.
Tom.
