Sweetie Sueley,

can I write just a note cause here it is one o'clock, I just arrived at the fair. Bob is with me today. WE were to meet Roseman and Jack at 12 but couldn't make it. Been chasing around all morning on my job. Have C.R. Sowers on the track. The latest hunch is to get the job, visit Boston, make the application, then come back, etc, etc, and infer until I peek at him long enough to make it stick.

your letter was home when I arrived last night. My didn't I eat it. Only read it thru' three times at the start. You will write every day won't you?? If you knew how it helped you will. And you'll pray for me too.
Bless you Sueley, your wonderful, sure thing.
Bob and I had an interesting talk that I'll tell you some time. not now tho' 'cause 'four minutes is up.

Here's a Pacific ocean of love. Sucky - goo' bye -

Dom.

P.S. Bob says to say he loves you in the same old way and he isn't kidding. I'll stand that from Bob but from Sal
