Tuesday 6:10.

Tommy dear -

no crab coming on you! I should say not when two letters were here this noon. I ate 'em alive.

This day isn't a bit what last Tuesday was! I'd give the next chocolate malted milk to have that day again. Yep! But today — oo! what a face. First thing was Student Body in which Heard & I + Hovey (he's an after-thought cause we had to "Mr. President" him) carried on a hot argument. It was all because & on account of Pat Barton not giving me the Block N amendments to the constitution. And the girls were all staring ● ● to see us occupy the floor. Then tonight right after class was Executive Meeting, which again adjourned until tomorrow at 12:30. I think those Sigma alphas are trying to get time on that coach affair. And — one steen dozen papers to send for Pi Phi Grand Secretary — and jolly dozen ~~extra~~ social at Elsie Herz what I'm not going to miss.
