

Box 1342
Tonopah Nev.,

Ruth Ann Pyle,
629 Lake St.,
Reno,
Nevada.

Sept. 7, 1915
That means Tuesday.

Sneaky, my Love, and now you have to be quadrupler or quadruped, cause sure enough I'm gonna celebrate your birthday this time. I'm celebrating on the eve of it, and you will know about it on the morning after. That's fair enough isn't it? I am also sending a slight reminder, which, I trust, will arrive in good shape, and a welcome visitor.

Your letter today was real cheery and I am much relieved.
Perhaps the letter you get in the morning will help a lot - here's hoping.

My you are getting to be an old maid. Just think - twenty.

four, and not married yet. wouldn't your good old grandma give up in despair? maybe you have good prospects; however, so we won't rub it in.

Started school today. all the girls want to take math.

That's a modest statement - don't hold it against me. Things will come in good shape I'm figuring. won't write much tonight - but sure I would like to love my twenty-four year old bride.

I'd sure take pleasure in initiating you right. I'm a lovin' you hard Sneaky, and the week is beginning to tell pretty hard. I'm getting the lonesome, homesick feeling, and want you right here. Won't tell Christmas and then - Oh my.

Sas. night-love - xxxx Love Tom xxxxx