Dearie Girl.

Just a wee bit line best you curse the mail (make) again. Nothing to tell particularly except that your nine double page letter came today, and gave me all frat pledges. Fourteen new PO's seems an awful lot. Hope they grabbed the pick of the campus as Ruth Pyle did. I was tickled with your loyalty - the way you lined out the people PO was doubtful about getting. I'm jealous 'cause you're more of a PO than I am a ΔP.
You could pass our bunch easier than Betty did, but I'd have kind of a sad reception from the inner recesses of a ΔP meeting. Perhaps at the end of this year I can qualify more easily.

Elmer Wiley is in town - haven't seen him yet however. Bradner informed me that their second addition is expected next week. Mother & child doing well. well! well!

I'm sure you wouldn't have me sit up later than 11,10 even - to write to you, and I shall need to do that this evening if I close this letter. Here goes -

Got all the kisses for today, and have them safely filed away in my valise. That black ratchet could surely tell a lot about two people. Don't Ruth. So long - and here is a good night squeeze and a long, long kiss um-m-m - Love Don.
