Honey love-

Oi! Oi! Oi!!! a letter from mama today puts everything different. She says she's no worse than at home, & refuses to let me take her home. Well - it's a whooping relief to know how mother is, and to know she's got a lot of spunk. But now where in the dickens am I going! I really do feel more comfortable when I say to myself that I'd go to Dillon, see my mother & relatives - cause it's been a long time, and I got every reason to believe they'd be tickled to have me. It'd make me feel awful good to see them too, I can tell you!
I'm a miser in the way I want to save ~~in~~ order to spend when we can be married & also to store away livens now. Mama said today she'd be with me when I graduate + when I'm married. Gosh! I want to see my dad too, but he's too interested in sinking money in oil wells to go to Montana.

Here's something I've meant to tell you - maybe I have. I know how I feel about it, but I want you to feel the same way. The Coziers have invited me to ~~the~~ visit them as long as I can. So miss one train out of Ogden puts me in Willon at a reasonable hour, so I wrote to Sol that that was the best I could do. He's on a perfectly safe basis, and I figure it'll be O.K. Besides that, two girls are coming from Wells to the University. It's well to see the material ahead of time. However, if I dreamed you didn't exactly sanction the move in every way, I'd begg three so fast Sol'd have curly hair like yours!

I like to ride on your rubber-neck wagon a la post cards!

Since I'll be here, I'm going in with Ruth to entertain C.C. Thurs. night. If you'll come afterwards, I'll give you something to eat. We're going to feed 'em strawberry shortcake & coffee. Ask you T H P O feeds!!

Surely to hope you can be here next Commencement, cause since you've gone, betcha I've lots of things to talk to you about. They are just to be talked - least I can't write 'em.
You'd have been there a yr.
& no doubt Maury'll give you a vacation to see "your sister" & "your sister's friend" graduate.
Hub?

A kiss and lots more come to you tonight, sweetheart - and a tight hug that'll make you holler, "Sneaky!" Bellesmy, I'd like to deliver first hand what wells inside of me but trusts to up & Uncle Sam!
It's all here, awaiting for you soon - all what can't get to you this way.
