of M. Pyle.

Friday night,

My Sweetheart,

Got two today - one from ~~Edgar~~ ^{Edgar} ~~Edgar~~ ^{Edgar} and one from Dillon. I saw the tone of the latter, I take it your mother is pretty well. Why didn't you say so? I got her love too. Will you give a share of mine to her - but mind you - the most is for you only.

I've had corn on the cob on an average of twice a day for the last week, and every time I take a nibble I think of I riseo. I like to put lots of butter ^{and pepper} on it 'cause then it makes my lips burn, and I can remember other times when they have burned.

Got a great letter from Mother today, and feel lots better about Bert. If he'll only go to school now I'd be happy.

I've got the writers cramp sure enough. Gosh I used a pen a lot today.

Good night - with a million kisses, for my love -
