STONE & WEBSTER,

147 MILK ST. BOSTON.

Thursday 1-30 P.M.

Love of mine,

I'm swiping some paper, a bit of the company's time, and an envelope just to tell a bit to you. I got two letters yesterday and the one written last Saturday was a long way towards those you wrote a few weeks ago. I'm sure feeling a lot better now.

maybe after awhile I'll feel sorry for heckling you like I did but, bosh, Sunday, if you knew how I felt, you'd feel bad a ~~long~~ long, long time too.

Group one was enlarged again

XXXX Love Tom XXXX

STONE & WEBSTER,

147 MILK ST. BOSTON.

this morning, and I'm having the extreme pleasure of breaking a man in. a young fellow - Georgia Tech, 1913, and with the Jacksonville, Fla. Electric Co. since then.
That, by the way is one of our ~~young~~ companies.

all that means this way out → for. Somme pretty soon, and by next June an excellent chance to make a few dreams come true, and take away three thousand miles of open space that magnifies our things into mountains of trouble.

So long, Sammie. If I get another letter today I'll write again.
Hope it's the long one - yours with more fire than ever
