Dear Tom :-

Just received your last letter. How good of you to write again after my seeming neglect.
Will be happy to see you any time and as long as you like. I enjoyed your letters including the good news.

and this coming year I hope will bring you ^{more} advancements + success.

Do not look for Paul, I do not quite understand how to direct him; he is now working in a drug house down Fulton St.

Enjoy your trip and come at your own convenience considering this your second home. With kindest love and best wishes for the "Holiday Season".

Your affectionate aunt Carrie.
Friday evening.
