

629 Lake St
Reno, Nev.

Mr. Tom P. Walker
75 Main St.
Haverhill
Mass.

Wed. 7:45 P.M.

My own sweetheart -

at convention for sure
and I'm thinking of you and your cause, in praying for those of 'em - bless your ole heart!

Yesterday is gone and
it seemed like a million years long. Instead of spending the evening of
Mon. at your house, I knew it was best that I see about Lottie. It took a long time, but I did get her hair curled and looking natural. When they brought her home, she looked so much better to Mrs. Miller than during her long illness.

Ruth Stubbs is here at Helen's & she's having J & D tonight. Ernie asked me to stay at her house tonight. 'Ray'.

Dommie - it's better that I tell you what's going on tomorrow.

Sol dropped in this aft. unexpectedly. I'm at Helen's tonight. So I'm to have dinner with him tomorrow night & some sort of show afterwards. Son, it's all right ~~and~~ ^{and} you aren't to worry one scrap about it.

It's only you I want, and he knows so there's no funny business. If I didn't tell you, chances are someone else would & then you'd wonder why I hadn't told first. You know me Son & no one else ^{does}.

or ever will.

Here's a loving love,
a hugging hug, + a kissing
kiss that I'll all bear to you the love that's yours.
Someone was ~~was~~ right when he said about a certain pair — their hearts were married for a long time, + only waited the legal sanction.

See me - is 7½ main st.
a lot different from
y. m. c. 4?
x x x x

all your own

x x x
y Sneaky x x
x x x ✓