SALT LAKE ROUTE

Saturday - 9.45-

Rufus Love,

Been in Utah twenty minutes, and haven't seen a mormon as yet. Must all be out gathering carrots. Spent a good night considering :- ① That I thought a long long time about a lovely young miss in Reno, who cried just a little bit when she got home, (2) I had some sort of a lump in my insides, that rolled around like a cannon ball in an empty box-car, (3) That a guy cannot enjoy any travel while asleep:- hence - why sleep?

will be on the Great Salt Lake pretty soon now and then I'll think about all you said of it, and about the letter that I might have had, if you could have found time to write it.

more than likely you'll get another letter before the day is over, 'cause I'm gonna think of you often, and for a whole year every plan, and every hope is going to have you for the background - my own true Sweetheart (reports from Joseph notwithstanding).

So long for now. and with this goes all those kisses we couldn't squeeze in the last ~~see~~ two days. and all those squeezes we should have had.
