Dearest, My Love,

Now I'm a settled down man - Al and I have a room together at the y.m. and we'll get along nicely ~~together~~ I fancy.

Just now getting acclimated.
Didn't feel well till tonight.
when I started to get better.
Just as soon as your letters come regularly I'm gonna be my own peppy self again.

I'm going to keep in condition too by walking to and from work. It's about two miles there' a beautiful section of Boston.

How I like this old place.

Really the people are great. as accomodating as you can ever find, and as friendly. The city is quiet, and clean, and pretty, although the streets in the business section are miserable narrow crooked affairs.

The bunch at the office is one large family, playing and joking all the time. we get to work at 8.30, take about an hour for lunch and quit at 5.

am checking up reports now - with a slide rule all day long. Getting along fairly well too.

Today I just had to see something of you or yours, so I got a TRGE report from 1910 and looked longingly at the subscription GAC-RP. They're all here and if you made a mistake I'm going to tell you about it.

We have three stenographers in our department and the first need I have for one, I'm going to be mean to her - sure I am.

I'll go now, Sweetheart. Soona be lonesome till your letters start to come regularly - then after that guess we can get along for the year. Here is a real loving for you with lots of hugs and kisses Love you + + + +
