S. P. SEYMOUR, MANAGER

Thursday Evening.

Rusie Loue,

Just been for a long, long walk. most seven miles I guess, and it was great.

First we (that is my roomy, Al, and I) crossed the Charles river to Charlestown, and took in the new Technology buildings.
Stone and Webster built them, and they are to be dedicated very shortly. It is really a wonderful plant. Then we walked way down to another bridge, and all through the city back home again. I like Boston better every minute - sure I do. If we can only be here together.

Worked today along the same old lines, only it's getting a lot easier for me, and I can see some sense to it now. Oh I'll learn to be a manager some day.

Pretty soon I'll be hearing from you. Gosh it's a long wait. Three weeks is commencement, then sure enough you're going to rest - aren't you?

And you're going to rest all next year too. If you write a long string of offices you have accepted I shan't like it a bit.
Good night Sweetheart. Hugs & kisses and everything to you tonight. x x x Love Don x x x
