Girl of mine,

Oh. oh. oh - read the card!!

wouldn't that put a kink in the best sort of a disposish. Um. - I'm sure tonight.

I've letters and me a starving. now I have to wait till I can tell her I know my own address. Brrr - - - and notice the hurry she was in. She must have received my letter Tuesday. She answered Friday - mailed the letter Saturday so I couldn't get it till Monday. Oh. oh. oh!!!

you don't mind this scrap of paper do you? I'm only going to write a bit.

Called on Ruth Kimball who graduated from H.S. when I did.
Got her address this summer in L.A. See it seemed good to see someone I knew even if I didn't think a heap of her.

She's quite a young lady now and a senior in Sargent's School for girls. Maybe I see her again don't know. If I do I'll tell you sure nuff, and you needn't figure her one of those good looking girls from Boston.

Run along now 'cause I'm going to bed, and cuss a stupid ain't some more. Oh for those fine letters right now. a big loving for my.
Sweetheart.
Loves Tom

Mass.

454 East 144th St.
New York
N.Y.

Dear Tom:-

Please let me know if you received this postal? I have five letters from R. H. P. to forward you. Thought there might be more than one Y. M. C. S. in Boston, hence the delay in not sending them sooner. Was glad to hear from you. Trusting you are perfectly well.

Affectionately,

May 5/16

Aunt Lizzie.
