Tues. Eve.

S. P. SEYMOUR, MANAGER

Ressie Love,

Tomorrow sure enough there's going to be one big jubilee around here, because I'm gonna get a letter from you, besides at least five from my. um. what a holiday.

Been investigating chances for a bit of studying. The Y.M.C.A. is next door to the New England Conservatory of music. Inquired there yesterday and find that I can study evenings for $1 per 1/2 hour and that one lesson a week is the course. I could afford that if I stay home all the time. On May 29th a course in advanced Spanish starts, and the term is four months. Think that, that is what I shall take. The fee is only $8 too. I'll need the Spanish more than the do-re-me when the butcher is to be paid.

I'm pleased with my progress at the office. Am now getting a real comprehensive idea of the whole affair. There is lots of tiresome routine work, yet in it all, when a fellow keeps an eye on the development of the different companies it's lots of fun.

A fellow never looks at the sky here because the buildings are in the way, and consequently he never knows when it's going to rain, and it rains an average of once a day too. Rain or shine - it's a great old hike from the y.m. to the office.
Two miles through the prettiest parts of the city, and just after breakfast when there is lots of pep.

All is excellent except a word from you, and that's due tomorrow - Hurrah.
Good night, Sweetheart o' mine, I'm a dreaming of you night and day. XXXXX Sover Sam XXX
