

Miss Ruth Ann Pyle,
629 Lake St.,
Reno,
Nevada.

Sunday afternoon.

My Sweetheart,

you've missed a day and I'm gonna hear about it. You see it was this way. Went to Charlestown yesterday afternoon where they were having Navy Day at the Navy Yard.
and we saw submarines go down and come up. a deep sea diver doing stunts, and cruisers, and battleships, and the old "Constitution", and the great machine shops, and a monster supply ship nearly finished, and ten English submarines interned, and some German merchant ships interned, and ice cream and peanuts, and a admiral. and all the time we were walking, and last night when I shed somethings, and put on my bath robe, and started to read the paper what I'd paid 3 (three) cents for I went to sleep. (I wish I had my three cents back.) and when I woke up I thought the buzzer was ringing for me to go to the phone, and when I got there it wasn't but it was twelve thirty, and I was sleepy, and so I took off some more things and went to bed, and I didn't write a letter, also.

went to Trinity Church this morning. The choir was beautiful again. after service I went to the rector, Dr. Alexander Mann, and told him I had a letter of introduction to him, but not with me. you see a fellow named Carlisle had come to Sonopah with his wife and daughter to visit a son Henry - a member of the club. and old man Carlisle took a fancy to me. He was a New York lawyer with enough money to do as he pleased. when he heard I was going to Boston I must meet Dr Mann.

well this letter said a lot of fancy things about singing and such, so I didn't want it with me the first time. Dr. Mann also knew Jasper L. Oddie so we had a nice little chat. Told me to come just before four to meet the choir directors.
I went and presented my credentials then. Seems like you have to go through some ceremony to get in.
They have a summer choir of men only, and I have to try out for that.
It will be good practice and this guy Mann is a very good sort.
Phillips Brooks used to preach in this church and just outside it is a beautiful statue of him.
except for that excitement, this has been a pretty old day. A fellow from the office called up at one for me to go out with him, but this date I had made prevented.

He's coming at 6 o'clock.
al went home today. Lives up in maine about five hours ride.
He has a machine, and a motor cycle. I'll be going up with him some day.

Got another one of your letters from ny. yesterday. That was #9. you surely are a faithful old pal, and I'm happy for it. If you could know what chess is in them, and how they help out you'd never miss a day. Got one from Reno too.

wednesday shall all be over. and I'm the happiest guy in the world for you. If you'll only rest now.
I'll quit now, sweetheart, after

I send you a breath of the beautiful flowers and trees around here. The parks are wonderfully dressed up and oh how it makes the heart yearn.
Spring for a lover is a tough old trial. and I'm getting it all. I'm loving you tho' Sweetheart, and sending you a pile of kisses.
