

Miss Ruth Pyle,
629 Lake St.,
Reno,
Nevada.

Saturday Night.

Honey Bunch,

Oh I so sad - no letter today - tomorrow is Sunday, and I'm going away Monday & Tuesday. Gosh!!!!

This has been a great day - you see it was Preparedness day here and we paraded - I with Danny.
Say we got to be old pals, and when I told him that two of us had planned a hike for Monday and Tuesday up into New Hampshire, he asked if he couldn't meet us at Lexington with the machine and show us around a bit. Well I guess yes - about twelve today the chief of us students - that's Danny's assistant - came to Hawkins and me and said that since Tuesday was a holiday they were going to run short.

handed Monday, and those who marched in the parade need not show up. ~~the~~ oh well. maybe we didn't have it on the slackers. Al went to Maine to visit the folks and will ride his motor back. Looks like some big times coming.

Been to Papa again tonight.
I was sure good too. Things keep a humming right along, and really it doesn't cost a fortune. You will enjoy it here some day.

Tomorrow morning at a convenient hour to Wellesley, and a trip thru' the scenery there. I'm not promising many letters these next few days but will do my best.

Good night Sweetheart of mine, and a peck of love to you. I'm sending hugs and kisses galore -
