Feb. 19/16

Wed. noon.

Honey lover -

Just before I buzz up on the tel until late tonight, I'll kiss you and love you and scream - speed that 18th!
I'm ignoring the fact that from among 5 letters this noon there wasn't no
Sonny-scrrawl. Somebody dares remark confidently "aren't you lucky to get all that mail?" There's when I really saw @!
I know, Sonnie, you're thinking it's sweet of me to ignore it.

Want to tell you a joke on Minnie Lanai. This as funny as her brother, and heaps better to look on.
after the military ball, she went home
with Edna Short. Minnie was in Mrs.
Short's bed. Charlie came home, (ignorant of Minnie's presence) went to his mother's room to tell his mother goodnight. As he was on his way in the dark to the bed he said, "Well, here I am!"
up sits Minnie, & says right back at him, "You haven't got nuthin on me, I'm here too!"

That new man is in our office all the time. Good, I feel like some little kid - he knows too much and asks too many questions. Tomorrow morning during my hour before noon I'm to introduce him to some people down town, and turn him loose on them with questions. Don't infer that I object to his being around.

Now I gotta go! Yes sis - just go, when I'd a lot rather be with you. And where I'm going is a perfectly good place to be, but there isn't the barest suggestion of a hope that I can see you - not even at the close of it all. Just keep on doing things and I'm all right so long as there isn't a slip. I'm wilder every minute about Frisco, cause it's the most wonderful thing just to get lost. Not a soul gives a hang for you and therefore they are consistent, - not a soul's going to ask you to do a thing. But I like all these adventures, to thrive on 'em is good, and the more that come, the less I worry. That's true too.

Isn't necessary to tell you "I love you Tommy dear enough to love you right here so I'd surely have you." And that's what I tell you all the time. It's just another unnecessary act of mine that hasn't been able to move on for something else. But just the thoughts of you make me try harder to live up to the best that's in me. D. X. Love Sneakers.
