My sweetheart -

Gotta sing to the class Tuesday, so I sang for Miss Henny first this aft. But we talked most, and see! I felt fine when I left her.

Tex came for me early ~~from~~ to C.C. so's we could go to a party at Helen's. But during the short time at C.C. many things by way of announcements took place.
Phoebe Taylor's engagement to Brockway + to be married in July or Aug.; Cordelia Randalls + Van on 28th of next month; Saviers girl & the nephew of August engaged. Guess that's about all that was surprising.

You know what ^(I received today) I'm going to keep this letter, right here on my table, so's I can resort to it quickly in any mood. It's that adaptable for anything, and it's what I most need for these trying days of Spring. And don't get a wrong idea of "trying". It doesn't in any sense whatsoever mean "tempting". Because it has never happened, I know it never will happen; and because I'm that much of a set pattern.

I'll kiss you and know you're singing your prettiest tonight. And I hope it's you who will sing our Debating Team on to victory tonight, over Brigham Young.
That thought'll keep me from going to sleep.

Incidentally, I wished a Sonopah reporter had been present in the Gym
this morning to hear Pres. Hendrick tell of his absence.

Good night "Gotta go now!"

——— Yep! and your birthday is on the 22nd of April - not two days later! ———

With the world full of love your Rusie.
