R
Lover Kid -

It's surely wonderful the news you do put in your letters! Now it's my turn again to be anxious for Monday's mail, to see whether or not your mother shouts
"Go!". It's gotta be that.
In that case you'll be coming in a week from tonight, and I'm gonna be ready with open arms.

For a blessed week!!
Please, honey kid, don't leave on a Friday or Saturday night. (I might well slip thru. night into ~~that~~ too.) See, this week I'll get a lot of studying done so's we can loaf & play.

I'm ~~going~~ <sup>goin'</sup> to the show tonight with Tex. He shone like a bright star in the track-meet yesterday, but he's kinda limpy now. Sharkey calls him "Lone Star".

I've washed & ironed clothes this afternoon — from 1 until 6 without stopping, - only once. That was for ice cream. Lawrence asked me to go on behind him on the motor cycle, but I'm sorta scared I'll roll off. See - there's a lot of me to balance.

To church tomorrow and to dinner at your house.
I'm so anxious for you to come.
What in the world are those Donopah people going to do to you when you spring the words!
I got an idea of a busy week for you. And I'd have you at the end of it!!

It's about time to go, - here's a great big loving, one that would take hours! Tex'll be looking for the letter to mail, and he'll have some kind of message to you. But I got the biggest, over and above what everyone else says. It's going to be great next Sat. To meet 23 and you, what's going to Boston. Aren't you ???

What'll Rich
do without you?

Yours in a walkaway
