Dearest Sam -

I surely am glad you up & done 'er!

And I just came home from quite a talk with Presy. He heard some place or other about it, & asked if you'd accepted. This is what followed - He hoped you'd accept. Even tho the wage was small in Boston, if you tended to your knitting, you'd soon leave it. That you were twice the value of any man in Donopah for whom you worked. Even tho you did like Donopah, it wasn't the place for you. If you didn't take Boston, he expected to have a much better place ready for you. (He wouldn't tell me where, cause it hadn't opened as yet.) The big important thing about Don is that he makes good on the job. The Donopah people will go the limit to get him back. — And so we talked and talked about things.

So I'll tell him this apt.

Yea, I can imagine the murmurs et cetera your leaving will cause. But you gotta sleep a lot here to make up for lost time.
Then you'll not only be able to make the most out of your trip, but have a reserve for planning.

A shower this evening for Grace Leon at Elsie Humphreys.
So no study again. I sorry. But beginning soon, I cram ahead for the time you are here.

a world of love to you Donnie darlin and I'm so happy to think you landed here!!
