Tuesday Evening

HoneyKid-

what d'ya think I'm gonna do tonight? why I'm going to bed in 15 minutes and at that time it'll be just 10.30. "ain't that a goofy stunt?" well I want to see if a nice long sleep will take this huskiness out of my voice.

you know I told you I started working for the Payse last week. well today the Scientists offered me $70 per to ring both morning and evening. I accept the nomination.

tell me what Bert means for not showing up at home for a couple of nights. Is he hitting the high spots or some-thing? I'd like to know about this. And you doing the night life. That Kane's was taboo for all T.T.'s. If you do it I know it's all OK. - so there - but I'm in favor of sleep for you - and you know it.

Nothing exciting happened today except a letter from you. That's sure a blood warmer - and I liked the last one fine too.

Been having lunch at school the last couple of days. The girls bring a lot of stuff and invite a few for the spread.
Tomorrow the boys furnish tamales. It's lots of fun. We have apples too, and everyday I must have mine thumped.
Then when I count the seeds they all yell "Ruth Pyle." Bless 'em all.
They know all about you, and it's mysterious how they find so much.
Ruth Pyle can get every eligible TP in Dropsah Hi. and I know that. She can get some non-eligibles too - namely J.P.W. et al.

Soi night Sweetheart. See you tomorrow.
Kiss me awful hard fore I go to the long sleep. If it feels good (the sleep I mean) I'll recommend it to you - all your ^{x ^ x x x}lover Tom
