Tuesday evening

your sweet little baby - Right now I'd like to put you right right, and sweep you to pieces - and put love you to death. why?

I just 'cause I am free because for you thought - so you can get that way? I know you do. Alwee.

I liked your letter today - anful lot. It was one of a half a dozen. Lots of business today are. I'm suffering one of them for your promise. It's a good one - take it for what it's worth.

Going to the great city of Manhattan Saturday to let my boys take a return whack at the rival team. We beat them fair here. Not too much confidence for over there, however.

One of my classes quit on me. Solid Geometry finished last Friday, and the class (or) were to go right ahead with Trig. May Kimball's folks made her quit, however, because she is already carrying too much work. The other one didn't want to continue alone. It's the class I enjoyed the most too. That leaves me only four classes to teach now - pretty soft eh? I make up for it with basketball and Choral Club tho! Just so's I busy all's O.K.

Sonma go to bed awful early tonight sore? and if I go early I'll have to go right now. Its 10:45. I'm off after I take some more of my inhalations.

Good night Sweetie. Sweet dreams to you. Say I wish you had some folks who would make you drop some of your work instead of trying to put more on you. Oh you Mrs. Withers.

Here's a lovin' what's a lovin' for my love. and kisses and hugs to match.

all yours —

My dear Tom:- Mr. Haug and I certainly thank you all for the lovely desert picture. We are both delighted and the picture will always add much to our home.

I suppose you had a very pleasant Christmas at home. It didn't seem much like Christmas to us, but it was the best time ever. Nothing like being married. After a months trial I can recommend it to you unconditionally. Sincerely, Clerrimond W. Tang.
