

Miss Ruth Pyle,
629 Lake St.
Reno,
Nevada.

Wed. Evening. 1916

Lowin' Kid,
you ~~thot~~ you were going to be fooled yesterday but I'm going to foil you. I'm going right down town now to spend two bits to get a letter to you tomorrow.

Feeling better now, only wanful sleepy. went to dinner
at the Dregloans last evening and staid late. Too much society, I know.

Say I hope you have a successful trip to I rised.
make the most of it. Sweetie-
but DONT WORK TOO HARD

tell Kate Woolsey that margaret Rogers sends regards by roundabout and devious ways.

And these are considered
good jokes in Jompaah.

A: - Do you like Tom Walker

B: - (Various answers)

C: - Has he got lots of girls

D: - Oh yes a Pyle of them.

A: - I don't think Tom Walker should be a school teacher.

B: - What can he do better.

A: - Oh he'd make a bully Pyle driver.

AMEN.

T.P.W.

Echo.

Ben Rotholty is a pretty good Jew who runs a cigar and stationery store here. He has been in Reno the last few days looking for a chance to locate, and is figuring on taking over Cotton-Jenners Place. Met him late last night, and he told me of all my friends asking for me. Then he ~~up~~ and says - "Tom - you've got better things than teaching school ahead of you. I'm going to take you to Reno with me and we'll set up in business together."

Oh I've got a great future.

What will you have "el Rapo" or "Colorado Cabbage"; Bah!!

Say - and again say I'll sing "do" and "me too" (modestly) but none of this "Sue" stuff. That's rubbing it in.

Be nice to Jack - but not too nice - and don't let him
make you forget Dommie away
off in Sonopah.

Goodnight Sweetie. and again good luck to you. Here are enough kisses to plaster
all over California, and they are all for My Love - xxxxxx Love Tom x
