Sunday midnight.

Sucaky Sweetheart.

Just passing school on my way home from the Tregloans, and I just have to say hello to you - bress you. Had a peach of a letter today - written in a hurry in class, but full of you and your wonderful love. a letter from mother too - when I read "They just got back from Hobbs!" They told me Ruth was wonderful" a little lump rose in my throat. Do not I know it, and are some folks just finding it out?

Sat up at 7:15 this A. M. to meet Bob and he didn't come. I'll hear from him before I meet him again. Put in a big day tho' and do not regret the early arising my voice is back, and all the good old ladies of bath series nearly fell on my neck this A.M. I'll strike for more money next thing they know.

Sent the Reno bunch home this morning feeling pretty good I fancy. Couldn't visit much with them 'cause I was too busy. Guess they didn't mind that.

Been to a silly show tonight to pay off a dinner obligation. Got into another one for my trouble.

When "The Battle Cry of Peace" comes to Reno you see it, and then write to me that you "Did Raise your Boy to be a Soldier". I'm for preparedness.

So long Sweetie. It's me for home and the clean sheets. See you tomorrow - and for a whole week in just five short weeks.

all yours Love Sam x x x
