

Saturday afternoon.

Mon Amour Qui. Qui,

Sure I deserved to miss a letter today, and it served me bally well right. Hope I don't miss tomorrow too - 'cause there's too many.

Here's what I have to do: - I have to leave Reno Friday night. Isn't that a happy prospect (inflection thrusly) I've got to get a new outfit, and figure I'd better do the same in N.Y. while visiting my relatives. That seems the most logical solution, and with all that I can't get to Boston before May 1st. Now question #1: - When can I get away from here? Inspector due April 18 or thereabouts. I'm gonna tell Dilworth I leave Wed. morn.

inspector or no. will it stick?
O nien Sabe?

Earl Swain wrote from Goldfield today that he leaves Monday morning for Schenectady. maybe we can travel part ways together.

Here I go to get ready for a farewell dinner at the Iregloans. Have several of those on lap.

Please do a lot of studying before Wed Sunday so we can play a lot the two days that follow. It will have to be a long old - good - bye but gosh the happiest of all 'cause the last and the one fullest of hope - So long Sweetheart - (Caus and caus of hugs and kisses)
