

Mr. Sam P. Walker
75 Main St.
Haverhill
Mass.

now. night.

Sweetheart Dornice!

Gee - didn't get this out in time for your train as I've just come from meeting at your house. Some meeting! We've planned big for Sunday, and all the time your knee gonna feel lonely for you honey dear - and think, "How perfectly wonderful it would be with Dom here!" Any place is wonderful with you!!

Got two fine letters from you today. I've read 'em and read 'em - and gonna do it some more afore I go to bed.

Most every letter now I watch to see your move. Hope they do cut down your work a lot so's you'll have more time to play. They surely have put you at the hard grind of hours. In a book I saw where I had put down that before you left for Boston you, Bob, & I were weighed. You shaved 175 lbs.; Bob, 140; and I, 135.

I go 'em & better than that now.

Aren't you right that August nor Sol nor anybody will get a look in!! Every time August threatens to spill the beans, I begin to talk about Sam. So he can't ever go very far when he knows so absolutely how I'm wrapped up in you — bless your ole dear heart. x x x X.

Had another letter from Sol today, — the outside of which almost floored me. But when I got in I found him quite resigned. He had asked me to go to the doings with him when Sigma Alpha came in, and in this letter he said it would be easier for him if I'd pick out another girl for him. Sure!! I don't get any flopping of the heart — only when I read your letters and ponder on Oct. 1st!! X That's why it's so easy to go out with different folks, — cause I just advance flat-footed and look 'em in the eye with nary a care.

Here this great big long sheet has been called into service to carry all the goodnight kisses to my honey dear. Or they're each one wrapped up snug and warm in a bag.
What do they all mean? Why - that Rosie does everything with the aim in view to make ^{her} ~~me~~ bigger for you, and more worth while - to have a big storehouse of faith and love, - cause there's lots to learn afterward! and to always have in mind how much I can put into our
"home."

Yours for good & keeps

x x Sincerely x x x x x x x x x x x x
x x x x

Tuesday night.

Dear old Honey Dear -

never did hear you "peep" today. Aw gee 😞!! ——— but I got two wonders yesterday 😊xxxxx

Nothing exciting has happened today - only I observed in Helen's room today. She's remarkable in the school room too!!

Had a meeting of AAE tonight, - long enough to get roped in on some committees.

Oh, Sonnie, if you could a' heard the compliment Prof. Andersen paid me you'd a gasped for breath. I did! He, he was relentless in praising the womanhood of Ruth Pyle, her influence with the students, activities, difficulties, scholarship, etc. etc. and didn't count she'd fallen short in not wearing the "world with a band around it". I was so fused & overcome at him letting loose that I didn't get the significance of the "world" until I was speeding home. Miss Mack just stood there & loved me with her eyes, and looked on like a doting sister which didn't help. Oh! Lord!

I appreciate his kindness, but it was damned embarrassing.
I felt I was made out of tin.

Do you remember Alona Morrow?
She was married about 1½ yr. ago, & now she & her husband & brother-in-law are serving a period of 12 yrs. in a federal prison for putting out counterfeit money.
They had such an establishment in Idaho.

An' everybody's wishing "Dad" were here for this week-end!!
Bless you - you ought to be.
Don't see why they won't take me thru as your proxy - I could tell you all about it!! Not on the branding tho' - lighting fires and branding won't get by!!!

Raymond Robins speaks to us tomorrow. We're all keyed to the proper pitch & would burst into discord if we had to wait another day.

Sorry, I don't get no letter from you today? Sorry, much??
An' wight then, ~~but~~ lemme kiss you, & love you - ugh!! - & then begin all over again, 'n I won't ever get thru -
- n - n - n - never!!! del your Stinky x x x change to last of

month