Monday night

Hello Honey -

Where were you
today? Awful
busy? It's Monday
too. Gosh I don't like it.

What am I to report today!! Still have the same
merry old round at
the works - Two

men out sick, and I doing the extra
work. I'm getting
great experience,
knows men, and preparing myself, faster
than I ever thought
to be a real live
manager. Haven't heard
further about the
selling job. I feel now that with this
new experience I'll

soon be ready for the second session.

In New York, last
Saturday a week, my Aunt Carrie was unloading on me again her trials and tribulations with her offspring, Paul. She bid is well mothered - over bossed, and just naturally antagonized, till now he wants to run away from home. Every one who knows him, knows full well that he hasn't the necessary ~~gimmicks~~ to do that,

and yet I feel that if the poor kid got some

place away from the
everlasting nagging
he'd be all right.
So I've taken him
to raise !!

Gat him a job
reading meters - telegraphed for him today,
and am now busy
getting a room fixed
for us here at the
y. m. Hereafter when it comes to a question in practical

nursing you may
call on me. Seriously
tho; I'll have lots
of fun just in giving the youngsters a
wee bit of a chance.

Haven't heard from

any PO's yet. Wonder how they enjoyed
getting SAE. I would kind a appreciate a
word that says
at least thanks -
you know how a

fellow feels about it?

You asked me some time ago if "75 Main St.," and "Y. M. C. A." are one and the same. They be fair lady. Sorry I mystified you.
 now I go whistling a tune of love to you. More and more I'm feeling that just after graduation this year, you and I will be able to put our fingers on the exact date that we love for now. I'll venture this - that if Eva teaches next year, and if mother keeps house for her,

then Mr. & Mrs. Joun^r. Walker will be spending a few weeks at Country Pond by October. I'll call it up with Eva too. Good night Sweetheart & Love, Joun^r.
