Saturday Night!

Sneaky Lane,

If I ever needed strong helpful letters like I got today and yesterday it's right now my Sweetheart. These are the days when discouragement ~~is~~ comes - when a fellow knows nothing but wars, wars, wars, and when the whole world seems against him. It is the time that the doctor and lawyer

sits in his office ~~was~~ waiting for his practice to come -
when the business man trims windows and sweeps floors -
when the author
shags the publisher with his MMS under his arm. I'm not discouraged tho!
The minute I try to be after a tough old day of weary routine - I'll find at home a letter from you - full of your problems - and their solution in your wonderful faith and love - then I ~~am~~ am my - self again - I'm the same old kid that set out to win with nothing but a capacity for hard work, and behind it the prayers and hopes of someone who cares a lot, and who has made me care ^{the} more for success because it will bring her to me quickly.

For all that faith and that encouragement, you've been all that a wife could be already - and still we have never even ~~savored~~ ^{savored} the wonderful happiness ^{that is to come} ^{soon -} ~~Love~~ ^{Love} ~~you~~ ^{you} ~~both~~ ^{both}
