

Miss Ruth Pyle,
629 Lake St.,
Reno,
Nevada.

Thursday night.

Hello Sueasy,

Up in Herb's room
to escape the music lovers. my room is some popular joint, and I'm glad. Takes me back to Lincoln Hall. I've been happier this last week than any time since I left you at the station. Maybe I should except the evening that the Pittsburgh convention gave us SAE but that didn't last a week.

Today I finished a special burner for ~~a~~ singing hats in a hat factory. I had to make gas imitate an alcohol flame. after three days experiment I got exactly the thing, and now am happy. maybe I can have it patented huh? See I'm going to like this job if I can get away with it the way I want to.

Wittingham one of the big boys in Boston was up today. He was Super here once, and it was he who had the picture of the Mackay Statue in the office. The reason he had it there, he told me today, was that he admired Mackay very much. He was glad that I noticed it, and remembered that it was on the campus of my college. Those little incidents help to keep up interest. am waiting anxiously for the letter that will tell about the installation. The letter I should have got today would have told it. you were busy with the dance and reception tho', and I excuse.

I go now, Sweetheart, with every thought centered on us and what October will bring.
It's a wonderful inspiration just to think of it. Goodnight and there are smiles of our love only you can see.
