

Miss Ruth Pyle,
629 Salse St.,
Reno,
Nevada.

Sunday night.
all Fool's day

My Sweetheart.

See I've been a slacker and you'll be mad. The reason too is just pleasure. I'm ashamed sure enuf. Thursday I went to this birthday party dancing hard till real late then Friday night a High School Club gave a show and dance that kept me up till twelve and with these plenty of walking all day long. Yesterday I was absolutely all in. ~~Time~~ Nine o'clock I saw me in bed sleeping soundly. That is a mighty weak excuse - to give you, Sueasy, and I'm penitent.

Put in my first day singing today and got along nicely. They say they like me, and I'll like it too.

One evening last week Mr.
Roberts - the manager here - brought me home, and we sat in the machine, outside the Y.M. chatting quite a while about the work. I told him how I liked it, what I'd like to get as time goes on - and we talked on in that vein. Yesterday I was in ~~the~~ ^{his} office while I waited for the photometer apparatus to get ready for a test. The stumpet - Miss Whaland - was crabbing about Roberts not coming back ~~and~~ because he intended to give her a letter and it was late. In the desk I saw the note -

"Write Mr. Sperry about Walker" Mr. Sperry is the district manager in charge of this district. While I was taking the test Roberts came in and gave Miss Wheland the letter. I heard very little of it, but I know that he wrote to him our conversation of last week. What's the answer? Is there something looming pretty close to me, or is that the sort of supervision I am subjected to all the time. It set me to thinking that all, and that's the reason I'm telling it

all to you.

Been to the Webster's all afternoon - we took a nice long ride - sang a bit, and had supper. Then they brought me home so I could write to you.

No I haven't a preference for an SAE pin - and bless your dear heart - none would please me better than the one you give me. I'm waiting patiently for the word that will let me in. Have two SAE friends in Haverhill whom I have told the plan to, and they are going to go into Boston with me. More earned fun!! X

Did you see the article about Stone & Webster in this month's American. Mother pointed it out to me. It's mighty good - and certainly inspiring for me.

Yes - Sneaky Sweetheart - you have been wonderfully
