

Ruth Ann Pyle,
629 Lake St.,
Reno,
Nevada.

Monday night.

Honey Love - a scratchy note to say hello, and tell you what happiness two letters brought today. I do live for those letters - Sweetheart - and for what they stand for to me - that is you - Gosh I want you.

There was a picture
too - the sun shining
over a big lot of flowers.
It did seem good to see.
it. Truly my heart.

quicken'd twenty beats per minute.

and then too you apologized, as 'twere. because perhaps your letters weren't as interesting as when they were full of college doings. Truly now is the time for thought - and 'tis then that you write the best letters - Sueasy. They are more full of the real thoughtful "you".

al Iuman must have passed through a terrible experience that will take a long long time to forget. Just as you say - they were still kids - in years and in ideas. I feel that we have had experiences and responsibilities already that have made us fit for this greatest of all responsibilities. and besides, Sueasy, we can know what true friendship is - the kind

