Nevada.

Friday Night.

My Dearest Sweetheart - ain't I getting just the best letters.
Today you answered my 4th of July letter, and I'm happy through and through. Course we're not afraid to take the step. I'm hoping, too, that Roberts will realize my new responsibilities and act accordingly. I told the supt yesterday that I hadn't been in a fine frame of mind lately, and that mostly I was discontented.

He seemed ~~solicited~~ solicitous immediately - maybe he'll act, only he's a tight one.

The ~~foreman~~ ^{galt} (gosh!) foreman leaves for two weeks - tomorrow and I have his job during that time - and a dirty job it is driving around a gang of shanty Irish. After that often the Supt. was going for two weeks - but I told him I'd better get a week in between because I had a lot of things I wanted to relieve my mind of. "Sure thing" - says he, so I'll have a rest between my mighty rise from foreman to Supt.

I'm really anxious to know what Mother thinks down in her heart now that she is going to lose her first born.
She should write shortly.
And now, Suealy, you just make all the preparations ~~an-~~ ~~any~~ necessary for October. and I'll start house hunting immediately. The whereabouts for the first jump will be an interesting problem - but it'll be solved. Maybe Tournee will have to be married in last year's suit but what odds - he's going to be married - Hurrah!

Good night Sweetheart o' mine, what fun to think that soon we can tie these letters up, and keep 'em for good - Big kiss
