INSORED

Thursday 14. Feb. '18.

Sweet wife o' mine;

a scratchy note on scraps of paper to say good-night to you. I've rattled off four letters already now - and it's most time for bed.

Say what sort of communication have you with John Wanamaker in Paris. Here's a card he sent with 2 lbs of excellent chocolate and two packs of cigarettes today. You're sure a wonder at rigging up unexpected stunts - bless your old heart.

Three more letters today too ☺ ☺ ☺ ain't they glad.

Not two old Polytechnics

"Polytechnic" just after burnt this evening - one a private the other a corporation. Have enjoyed talking to them.

"My old lady" - that right locker - There were one or two things I should have told you in my last note.

Get your locker not be too worried important about coming out here; be - same Headquarters record an order a short time ago that any effort was allowed for wife to come over here would be tried for gross disobedience. I've done my best by forbidding you to come - so now if you do - Oh well!!! /xvx

The division movie man is a friend of mine and insisted that I have my face in an official picture.
Maybe you'll see a guy helping to boss a cable laying job - and then that's me.

Set our clocks ahead an hour Saturday so now we have nice long evenings - but I can't get used to the mornings yet.

am driving my own motorcycle now. The driver was sent on some other detail this a.m. so I started out alone. won't have one of them now.

Better go kiddie - have to shave before I turn in.
If I left it till morning it wouldn't be done.

But I has to say boo' night.
It's the real kind too - my arm and all - and I treat you fine - no ruffian performance - just love and love to the sweetest wife man ever had. It was sure great of you to send that box from Paris.

Love and love and love
from Lover Sam
