July 15 -

Sweet wife of mine -

Got a batch of letters this a.m. - 4 from you - one from sis and one from mother.
And the one that you sent the money in came - Dog - gone you women - Well I can't deny that it will come in handy 'cause I've really spent more than I should have - yet only for things I really need. Yep I'll use it to good purpose - and then go to Paris and go on a big time.

It's been kind o' tough the last few days - lots of night and day work - but this a.m. I got some sleep, so now I feel pretty good.
I'm writing this on the fly. wonder what all my friends think of me - I write to no one except you and home.

Mother wrote about her job - pretty good I say - $75 and everything - and Eva with $130. we can't feel like slackers now can we?

Could tell you lots of interesting tales - but somehow the muse isn't with me.

It's a beautiful day too - and this is a mighty pretty village we're in - and pretty girls and everything - why I can't put my mind on a letter.

Do you believe that? If you do I'll censor it out.

well any how - I'm all right.

I'm having a wonderful time -

I'm busy - and I'm wanting an awfull lot to say hello to you - really if it were not for the rushing for you - I'd have a real pleasant time of this war. Jes sa same I'm coming to see you so soon as I can - Lots love - big hugs - and (scale  1:1,000,000) that big basket full of kisses -  Love, Love, Love
