Sweetheart o' mine,

Your letters - just now - four of 'em written in Boston and - these!! - the last one on the evening before you went to Haverhill. I'm awful anxious to know what you did there, and who you met. You'll tell me all about it won't you.

And now we come to an issue - ! - X ⊙.
If you send me any more money I'll quit writing to you. I don't want it. On the contrary I'm raising your attention to $100 to about Sept 1st. I think you know all the particulars in the course of the next couple of weeks. If I get $25 from you - the just naturally make it $125. But a notion to do it any how. But that an order to be changed - don't send any more money. It's more than I can manage you X X X X X

some it's in a unit pretty little. enough playing around - running etc. I enough having lots of fun. I enough 178 Sept 20 - fit. looking little known - and the entire little miserable. make you for for you must have not sharp right to get off my name from all that part of clothing. Heard a coming. wonder what it did mean?

But in so promising good you got to Boston and remember because I know you enjoyed

I my pens. Gum - my watch is broken (only I picked up a loose watch), and now one lens of one pair of glasses is chipped. When I need something I'll tell you - but don't send anything unless I ask - because things accumulate as it is and oftentimes I throw away stuff I'd like to keep.
Big love, Sweetheartmine, and a wantin' you lots
