Sept. 5, 1918.

my Sweetheart,

Just seems like I don't dare leave you a minute, 'cause you will get yourself in some sort of a run down condition now it's your eyes - and all because you are dreaming or something. Sincerely can't you please find the happy medium between fast, furious work and a bit of play - Gosh I want you to be busy - and I want your mind occupied - but can't you see I want you well and happy, and full blooded.

Please watch out for yourself - and constantly say - "Am I all ready for Tommie if he should walk in on me. This very minute". You never can tell the minute you know! x

The other day a capt came in to use my telephone, and in his conversation gave his name. I never heard of only one, Sielaff in my life, so I said, where you from Capt? A.
"California." Well then you're Sis Sielaff aren't you? Yep.
"Well does this mean anything to you?" (presenting my P.O. ring.)
"Sure thing - I know Caem - Caem pretty well" - and there you are - I'd never known him, but of him - and he knew who I am - so were friends.
He's right in Div. H.Q. with me - has been for a month - so will have some gossip. He won't believe however that Bobby and Lou are engaged. Don't blame him a bit yesterday I had four letters from you Sweetheart - and to day one each from Eva - Peter S., Alice Webster, and you la! la!

Eva's letter was mighty cheerful - and Alice's told what a wonderful hit you had made with her.
I'll send it to you, as soon.

And your letter was a tonic - all of them are - really I make a nuisance of myself around H.Q. asking about mail 'cause I sure need letters from you.
Peggy Percival's outfit is somewhere close to mine, and tomorrow I'm going to straddle the Harley and hunt him up. I'd like to see old Pogy. —————→

~~How'd~~ How'd you like a job on a canal boat.
France has miles and miles of canals winding in and out among the hills and valleys, and lined the whole distance on each side with large beautiful trees. And the barges are pulled by horses, and the man who tends them walks along behind in a leisurely-don't care style that covers about 3 Kilometers an hour.

the family lives aboard the barge-keeping house as they go. When they want supplies the mission ~~boat~~ drops off at a village and catches the barge further down the canal (they go very slowly sure enough) and when she wants exercise she strolls along under the trees with Hubby. I should think they'd fight all the time - being together so much. What do you think about it? I like to pilot the solo along those low paths - because they are always good roads, and the scenery is wonderful.

No gossip to tell - I'm taking it awful easy now.
I have a special job that I have organized to such a point that it runs itself absolutely - except when something big pops - then there's plenty to do - and you know I like a lot to do.

Here I go to bed - I'm taking the rest cure now - just the thing that you need most. All right go ahead and be mean to yourself all you want 'cause someday you won't get the chance.

The minute I get my hands on you - just beware, 'cause you'll be good then !!! x x

I'm loving you tho' Sweetheart, and anxious for you to be well only because I love you so much, so you'll take care of you while I can't wait you please? Aw right. Kiss me x x - now good-night x
I Love You x x x
