My dear Mrs. Walker,
So there is another débutante in the Walker family!

I was very glad when your proud spouse called me up to give me the glad tidings that you had your party over with.

he is not living up to.

We liked the pictures of Betty which you sent recently & now we shall be anxious to see "little sister". Whatever did you do with Betty when the new baby announced its arrival, for I understand Grandma Walker had not arrived. Rufert played us the same kind

We are quite anxious to learn what you will name the fair lady since "William" will not do & my husband as well as yours does not approve of "Wilhelmine". But I do hope she won't share the misfortune of my brother's month-old son who is still unnamed excepting for the nickname "Happy" because he was born on New Years Day & which name of a trick + we had to get a neighbor out of bed to stay with Luise. So inconsiderate.

Well, here's hoping things will run along nicely for you all + that your new daughter will prove an ever lasting blessing to her parents.

With a big hug for your big girl + a little one for the little one, I am

Sincerely,
Doris Wittinghoff.
