Friday Evening.

Sneaky mine,

Today Elvora brought Chellis over with her and he and Betty had a most wonderful time playing together. Chellis hasn't had a girl since Betty left 11th ave. and they renewed their courtship all over again.
I didn't see them but mother said that they played beautifully together.
Ann is a darling. Chellis and Betty played "Ring around a Rosie" - and when they fell down Betty would squeal but Ann squealed lots louder. Mother says that those blessed babies know you are away and that they are doing their best to be good.

Betty misses you a great deal. wants to know where mama is continually. But she still believes you're gone for Santa Claus and she is crazy about the prospect of going to Boston to meet you.

This morning I sent Peabody to Winchester to take Vittie's dear and the luggage down, and go on to see Oamel about entering the statistics Department. Sabine went in with him and according to Peabody she and Vittie had a fine visit en route. Some lovely ginger ale glasses that Sabine brought came today and before sunset mother and I had a Scotch highball - want some?

I have just come from the club where we rehearsed some more on the minstrel show. It should be very good except most of the principals are so busy they can't come to rehearsals. I'm going to have some gas people there so they can get some painters ~~see~~ for our minstrel show in January. By the way the Christmas tree is to be Tuesday evening Dec. 19th - and don't let me hear that you haven't received a bid - because here it is now.

No word from Dad today and that makes me think that everything is going nicely. Of course when you get this you'll know and I hope you write me immediately. Thought we might get a letter today - but until you get settled it will be uncertain. Hope we hear tomorrow so we don't have to wait till Monday.

everyone is interested in your trip, and anxious to know how you are faring.
~~It~~ as long as we don't hear anything we assume good news.

ye you know I forgot to send Vittie's bottle down. maybe we'll have to keep it now!!

Had a note from Eva today. She claims Division is to be discontinued in two weeks. but Mr Brown is figuring on taking Eva wherever she goes. I think she's willing to quit whenever she finds she's needed. Last night I wrote to her and then after I wrote you.

Mother says that after she becomes accustomed to her new job she'll write a nice long letter, so you may expect one from her shortly.

Oh and also my goat chick came today - for the full amount - so you see I haven't been cut yet.

Now to a lovely, lovely bed - to dream and pray for my sweetheart - in her tribulation. It will be wonderful for you to see your folks - and how wonderful for them.
Except for that I couldn't bear to have you go. I'm just loving you and loving you, my kiddie, and hoping you'll come back soon. The kids L.T. XX
