

April 9, 1920

Dear Mother,
at school we are learning to do decimals. And how to read them.
I think it's real
easy.

I went over
at Willies house Wednesday afternoon Lillian Powell and Eleanor Landes
was there too.

We had a mighty good time. Her mother had made some ice cream
and we ate that with some vanilla wafers.
Then we went over to ~~the~~^a fence and walked on top of the fence. Then we came home and started picking thistles and taking the thistles off of them to make powder puffs.
Then Eleanor had to go home Lillian had to go home too. (She lives at the La Salle

Hotel.) Willie
took her home
but I didn't go because daddy and nan my were going to San Jacinto
to a dinner. Angie stayed with
us. Yes sure
sure sure sure
Yes yes
you White real kisses from Uncle and Betty
