Dear Family.

Our first day of return to our ease came out quite well. Of course blow by blow accounts of a fight - especially in the early rounds - don't always forecast the final result.

Last night coming through New York from Boston I called the Browns and told them about Jim's plans. Today I sent word to Jim through Clyde McGraw to see me at the Barclay Sunday morning. Then we'll go out on

Long Island. Have no inkling how he's getting along in Houston. Maybe he has written you.

Joimer Cartwright called the office today to suggest we see Mrs. Sherman's apartment while the furniture is still there. When he found we were both away, not to return for a bit, he said he'd have to move it out. He told whoever it is who is substituting for Margaret that he understood we have the first refusal on it, and he thinks we will like it.

Tomorrow we go back on hearing. Tennessee has filed a whole new set of exhibits so we are asking for another recess. maybe till after Easter. If we get it I have a full week's work around New York so I'll stay up here. after that there is no telling how the deal will go.

I'm feeling fine and all eager about what we are doing, and our prospects. We take good care of Jim this weekend.

Love to all of you. I'm sure you are having a bang-up time -
all my love. Daddy
