

The SHOREHAM.

2500 Calvert Street, N.W.
Washington 8, D.C.

The J. I. Gammill family.
Wash. D.
Ozugway.
Utah.

The SHOREHAM

Connecticut Avenue at Calvert Street
Washington 8, D.C.

May 7, 1954.

Sweet Family,

according to my count
you are all in Dugway again, and will be off next Tuesday when Mother starts out for Houston.
Sure hope I can be there when you arrive. I've about given up the idea of going to Lake Placid but not entirely.

The hearings go very slowly, and this afternoon are especially dull. so I'm taking off to write a few letters and do some phoning. I tried to get George Clifford but had gone with Irene to the airport. This must be the day she leaves for Europe.

I had half way figured to spend the weekend in N.Y. but the plane is here and is due to go to Houston tomorrow (Fri.) afternoon and return here Sunday.
So-o. I'll ride on down and have Saturday at my desk to do some cleaning up. It must be a wreck by now. Believe I'll call Dyzy and ask her if she wants to go too.

Yesterday Clyde, Stew. and I left here early
with one of our customers.
picked up a couple each in Danville, Va. and

The SHOREHAM

Connecticut Avenue at Calvert Street
Washington 8, D.C.

Charlotte, N.C. one in Columbia S.C. and then went on to Atlanta where we had lunch and a customers meeting. We left at five retraced our hops and got back here at nine. It was a very successful day too.

Jack Burton went to Houston yesterday and Virginia stayed here till he comes back Saturday. I just had a cup of coffee with her. Alice Burns was here too - she and Stew left for home a short while ago. This place will be deserted over the week end. - this place meaning 2005. Now if you were here now.

we could do Washington
in a big way.

wish I could peek in on all the Mother's Day festivities. Yours will be be a double barreled affair. and I'll bet a good one. Here you spend Easter - Mother's Day - Cinco de Mayo - San Jacinto my birthday - and Arbor Day in July way. where will you be on the Fourth of July? Better figure up the right answer in case you don't already know it.

Bye all you people -
Lots of love to all of you.
Havent had that message from you since yet. P.P.S. ☺☺☺