Coblenz Am Rhein

May 25, 1919

Dear Mrs. Your husband had a serious relapse today, so we took a trip up the Rhein to Bingen - the place where there was death of women in the poem. Fine trip and I recommended it highly to you - say next week if the weather is better. Have good prospects of getting home - in October. Don is leaving soon - (tears). Now is Mrs. Brown
