Hello Sueky -

Here I am again - mustache and all, only that has disappeared long long ago. The picture was taken for an identification card in a French back yard - just after Cantigny, before I had the wrinkles ironed out of my face and clothes.
That's the reason you did - not get it long ago.

You see I cleaned out my card case today (the one Ray gave me) and polished all this junk. For instance there is the story of the leave to Nice - pass - telegram - ticket and seat home "and Everything" now those tickets are for bread and you can't get bread without em so guard carefully. And a pass to Luxemburg. and a piece of poetry - and some Rosche telegraph stamps I picked up somewhere - There's sure a motley collection. That rosette was presented by a fair daughter of Sarraine to wear in remembrance of their ill-livance from the Hun.

WE cross the Rhine tomorrow Friday Dec. 13. can't forget that easily can we. Tonight I'm very comfortably billeted in this pretty little town on the Moselle.
Have a good bed. electric lights - a cheery fire - and a pretty room.
Say do you know - the first thing I hit Cablenitz tomorrow I'm going to buy a suit of pajamas or a night shirt. Haven't slept in em for six months. Isn't that wanful. No soldiers are hard, you know.

Some time in now - the fishing was rather heavy today - and we start at seven in the morning. Before that there no late to do, because beside 75 men I have 35 horses - and a bunch of swans to be sold on the road. Have very good 1200, however, and every day little.
So might just take of mine!
Now that I know let me you know, I can hardly contain myself - cause you I want you are lot - you water out for me when I come home - in world -

Wonder what these Father's in laws are?
are they as bad as all this?
