Montebello -
Jan 3 19189

To Kiddie,
Just sittin' here waiting for
mac. The photographer to come down so we can go home together, and it's quiet and nice and warm, and kind o' cozy, so I'll have you wait with me, see!

This is my office - like it? Yep it's the courthouse, and that's Kaiser wim I across the street in all his iron majesty. See that steep hill just in back of him and the castle on top. Pretty nice isn't it? Yep and every Sunday afternoon - and Kalisays too - a good old army band gathers around the statue to entertain us.
'Stuff job.

The day work done we lie ourselves home. Fine of us own a hotel - and an excellent hotel at that. We each ~~so~~ have a good room - well lit - well heated - and with all the comforts of home. An evening stretched out on the lounge with a good book, ~~and~~ a bottle of Rhine wine, and a good cigar isn't so awful bad for a field soldier is it? and we're a good crowd too - around the table - or the piano or in our rooms there's always something doing.

Eats - boils!! we're starting to get supplies a bit over and above bare ration now a' days - little extras that we can buy to make the mess more inviting. And the ladies who run the hotel do our cooking for us.
Just imagine a born cook (all German women are born cooks) who has lived along for four years with no flour - little meat - no grease - poor sugar - etc. being turned loose with all the makins' in the world boarders who think her wild extravagance very cheap - and an appreciative audience.
Well we eat good!

Here's Mac. now.

Now it's the next day. the morning. Say with all this I've written you'll think I hate to leave this place won't you? well now kiddie you just put it down that I'm taking all the fun. that comes - and making the most of it - but I'm also doing my damndest to make an early return possible. Since I've decided not to take a career in the army - I'm going to do everything possible to get to work at something else - right away.

The army's no place for ambition - sure enough. Too much waiting for the fellow above to die before advancement and authority come.

George Patullo was just in telling me about his last story to the Saturday Evening Post. It's the first where he's been able to tell frankly about the 1st Div. and should be a good one. Watch for it and send me a copy. Patullo is quite a scout - and mine had some good talks. You see this message center is a good observation post, and lots of information passes through that there is no harm in spreading, and that's the stuff he wants.

No indications of going home yet.
